His refusal to sucted his duties said fudir Barman serves to hid attention fulling bis littless and expactly for the office of Servelary of Settle

Mr Braden whose hume is at Warren Trumbull Cumb-bern chairman of the Tax Commission I rethres years. He farmer a successful business man of the Malenting Yalley and was licutenant covernor

It is known that he has gle med through his experience is the in administrative capacity and as a taxpuser and us a state offi-cial a constructive reduction program in taxes with which he pledges cooperation with all departments of State

His contention is that the time is no hand when those offi-cials who are elected must accept the resp assibility for redu-tion in the cost of government without harming efficiency by administration.

He feels that through economy in government eperation taxes should be, and can be reduced

"It is a tremendous task. Mr. Briden has said but the lance must be med squarely and met now in order to relieve overburdened taxpayers. X Geo. C. Braden
